PC:

Application for condonation of delay in filing review petition granted. Delay condoned. Heard learned counsel for the applicants in review petition. We see no reason to review any of the orders passed by us as we had dismissed the writ petition No.1526/2000 by that order solely on the ground that it raised disputed question of fact for which alternate remedy is available. That being the situation the observations made therein to come to the conclusion that the disputed facts exist are confined to the disposal of that petition on that ground alone. Hence there is no need of review. Review petition stands rejected.
